

Wills in the office of the Register of Wills for Frederick County of all the rest, residue, and remainder of his estate of every kind and description, unto Michael J. Curley, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Baltimore City, Maryland, a corporation sole, for the use and benefit of St. John's Catholic Church, of Frederick City, Maryland.

28. To the following bequests contained in the Last Will and Testament of William Jarboe Grove, late of Lime Kiln, Frederick County, Maryland, which said Last Will and Testament is recorded in Liber J. H. No. 1, folio 195, one of the books for recording Wills in the office of the Register of Wills for Frederick County:

(a) To the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank of Frederick, Maryland, a body corporate, the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), in trust nevertheless, that it will safely invest and keep invested the same in as profitable manner as possible, consistent with safety and pay the income and profits therefrom semi-annually to Saint Joseph's Church, Carrollton Manor, to be applied to the support of the Pastor of said Church.

(b) To the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank of Frederick, Maryland, a body corporate, the sum of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00), in trust nevertheless, that it will safely invest the same, in as profitable manner as possible, consistent with safety, and pay the income and profits therefrom semi-annually to Saint Joseph's Church, Carrollton Manor, to be used towards keeping in good condition the graveyard attached to Saint Joseph's Church, the ringing of the church bell and the keeping of the church in a comfortable condition on Sundays, so that Catechism may be taught herein.

(c) To the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank of Frederick, Maryland, a body corporate, the sum of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000.00), in trust to be paid to His Grace Archbishop Michael J. Curley, of Baltimore, or his successor, to be applied toward building a Catholic Church or School at Adamstown, Frederick County, Maryland, on the lot purchased by me for that purpose; or should it be more desirable, the said Archbishop's discretion, or his successor, to erect a school building at or near the present Saint Joseph's Church on Carrollton Manor, or if the sum above mentioned can be used to better advantage in making necessary improvements to Saint Joseph's Church, Carrollton Manor, the Rectory and the surroundings, I leave this to the discretion of said Archbishop Curley and his successor, to use the aforesaid fund to be paid for said purposes or any of them, within five years after my demise, but if not used as above provided, said sum and income thereon shall become a part of the residue of my estate.
