

fied, and no person so elected shall be eligible as a candidate to succeed himself as President of said Board for two years after any particular term in office as President of said Board; also, on the first Monday in May, 1937, said voters shall elect four Commissioners for terms to be determined as follows: as soon as said Commissioners have been elected and qualified they shall by lot divide themselves into two classes, two of said Commissioners to serve for two years from the date of their election, or until their successors are elected and qualified, and two to serve for one year from the date of their election, or until their successors are duly elected and qualified; and on the first Monday in May, 1938, and on that date annually thereafter, said voters shall elect two Commissioners to serve for two years from the date of their election, or until their successors are duly elected and qualified, and no person so elected shall be eligible as a candidate to succeed himself as a Commissioner for two years after any particular term in office as Commissioner.

58. The President and Commissioners of said town shall annually designate the time and place of holding said election, and give at least two weeks notice thereof by notices set up at five of the most prominent places in the town; and prior to the first Monday in May of each year, shall appoint some person to act as Judge of said election, who, before acting as such, shall qualify in the same manner as judges of election for State and County officers in this State are required to qualify before a Justice of the Peace, and shall open the polls at two o'clock P. M. on the first Monday in May in each year and close the same at six o'clock P. M.; and the person voted for President as aforesaid at said election who shall receive the highest number of votes shall be President as aforesaid, and the persons in number according to the previous section voted for at said election for Commissioners for said town who shall, respectively, receive the highest number of votes, shall be Commissioners as aforesaid.

59. If at any election to be held as aforesaid it shall appear by the certificate of the said judge of said election that any two or more persons voted for as President, or any two or more persons voted for as Commissioners, have received the same number of votes, so that there shall be no choice for President, or no choice for an entire Board of Commissioners, if there shall be two of said five officers duly elected, the person or persons so elected, together with the President and Commissioners holding over, if any, shall assemble immediately, and, having qualified, shall proclaim a new election to supply the vacancies occasioned by the failure to elect, giving
