

purpose or purposes shall be expended subject to the terms of such gift or legacy, provided that the Governor shall assent to the acceptance of such gift or legacy.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all funds in the State Treasury to the credit of the appropriations herein made at the end of each fiscal year, which are not directly obligated by some specific appropriation herein or hereinbefore made, such as the retention of excess highway receipts over estimates for future legislative action as outlined in the text of the State Roads budget, shall, at the end of each fiscal year, revert to the general Treasury of the State, whether the same be now carried as special funds or general funds. Any Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are to the extent of their inconsistency hereby repealed; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to the State Industrial Accident Commission nor to the State Game Protection Fund; nor to the contingent reserves of the University of Maryland and provided further that this section shall not apply to unexpended balances in any reserve or contingent fund subject to allocation by the Governor or the Board of Public Works.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That where any increase is made herein in any salaries fixed by any Act of the General Assembly heretofore enacted, the passage of this Act shall operate as an amendment to such Act to the extent of such increase. No part of any appropriation hereinafter made providing for the payment of salaries shall be used for the payment of any other expense, and no part of any appropriation for any item of operating expense other than salaries shall be used for the payment of salaries without the previous approval of the Board of Public Works. No salary of any classified employee shall be reduced until the employee affected thereby has been notified of the proposed reduction and afforded an opportunity to be heard before the State Employment Commissioner of Maryland, and when the State Employment Commissioner approves a reduction in the salary of any such employee, he shall notify the employee affected thereby of his decision, setting forth his reasons for such reduction and any such employee shall have the right of an appeal from any such decision to the Board of Public Works at any time within ten days after the decision of the State Employment Commissioner, and no such reduction shall take effect until the time for appeal as herein provided has expired, and in cases where there is an appeal until the proposed reduction has been finally approved by the Board of Public Works.

No part of any appropriation hereinafter made providing for the payment of salaries of persons in a named classification shall be used for the payment of salaries of persons occupying positions in any other classification, and no classification shall
