SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That no State department, board, commission, officer, institution, or other agency, shall exceed the amount of its appropriation made herein, except in the manner and to the extent for which provision is made in Section 12 hereof. If any such State department, board, commission, officer, institution or other agency shall otherwise exceed the amount of its appropriation there shall be no reimbursement of such excess nor shall there be any liability or obligation upon the State to make any appropriation hereafter to meet such deficit, and the officer or members of such board, commission, department or agency, or of the governing body of such State institution who have made any such excessive expenditures, shall, in the discretion of the Governor, be deemed guilty of neglect of official duty and shall be the subject to removal therefor.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the items and amounts which are hereafter set out to show the methods of making up any appropriation do not constitute appropriations, but represent the initial plan of disbursement and apportionment of the appropriations of which they are part. Each appropriation shall be paid out only in accordance with the schedule therefor, if any, unless such schedule be amended within the limits of such appropriation in the following manner:

The Senate of Maryland of the General Assembly of 1937 may by resolution provide for or authorize the amendment of its schedule.

The House of Delegates of the General Assembly of 1937 may by resolution provide for or authorize the amendment of its schedule.

The Governor may himself make an amended schedule, if the same be necessary, with respect to the appropriations for the Executive Department, and upon its transmission to the Comptroller the appropriation for such department shall be paid out in accordance with such amended schedule.

Any department, board, commission, institution or officer except the State Roads Commission may at any time submit in writing to the Governor an amended schedule for the disbursement and apportionment of the appropriations made to it or him. If the Governor shall approve such amended schedule he shall transmit the same, with his certificate of approval, to the Comptroller and thereafter such appropriation shall be paid out in accordance with said amended schedule. Any such amended schedule so submitted to the Governor may be withdrawn at any time before the Governor has acted thereon. Any amended schedule approved by the
