

at least five days' previous notice posted as aforesaid of said election.

60. If at the election to be held on the first Monday of May, 1937, it shall appear that less than two of said officers have been elected, then, the board now in office, or any three of them, shall proclaim a new election, giving at least five days' public notice thereof, posted as aforesaid; in case of the failure to elect four Commissioners on the first Monday of May, 1937, the division into classes prescribed in Section 57 aforesaid, shall not take place until after the vacancies are filled; and, should a vacancy arise in any of said offices because of the death, resignation, refusal to qualify, removal or otherwise of the persons elected to fill them, the said board shall proclaim a new election to fill the same, giving at least five days' notice thereof.

60A. The President and Commissioners so elected may meet and adjourn from time to time as they may think proper; and at their first meeting, which shall be within one month after their election, they shall appoint by ballot a Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall continue in office until successors shall be appointed and qualified, but shall be subject to removal by said board for neglect of duty, disobedience to its orders, or other malfeasance in office; and they shall require and take from the Treasurer a bond, in a penalty to be fixed by them, for the faithful discharge of his duty as said Treasurer.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law, and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved May 18, 1937.
