

may, during such sixteen days, be registered for subsequent elections and may obtain a certificate of registration by appearing before the town clerk, accompanied by two qualified electors of the Town, all three swearing upon oath that such person possesses all of the qualifications required by Section 13 of this charter, except that he is not registered. The clerk shall, upon a payment of fifty cents by such person, issue him a certificate of registration, for the immediately succeeding election, which certificate shall bear the signature of the person to whom issued, the names of the electors accompanying him, the signature of the clerk and the Town seal. The fee so collected shall be paid to the town treasurer and deposited in the general funds of the Town. Any person who shall feel aggrieved at any action of the town clerk, taken under Sections 16 or 17 in refusing to register him or in refusing to strike off the list the name of any person, shall have the right to appeal to the Circuit Court of Prince George's County at any time before the day of election and such case shall be heard by such court as provided for by the general election laws of the State for appeal, in election cases, and so far as the same may be applicable, the provisions of the general election laws relating to appeals and election cases generally shall be applied to such appeals.

SEC. 18. WHO MAY VOTE. Upon satisfying the judges of election of his identity, any qualified elector of the Town may vote. Any person presenting his certificate of registration to the judges of election shall make his signature in their presence. If it is the same as that on the certificate of registration, he may vote. If such person cannot write, the identification of one of the persons whose names are upon the certificate shall be sufficient.

SEC. 19. REGULATIONS OF ELECTIONS—PRECINCTS—POLLING PLACES AND SUPPLIES. The Council shall determine the number of precincts and make all needful rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this charter, or the laws of Maryland, for the conduct of elections, for the prevention of frauds in elections, and for the recount of ballots in case of doubt or fraud. The Town manager, upon being so directed by the Council, shall provide for polling places and necessary supplies, including glass ballot boxes.

SEC. 20. JUDGES AND CLERKS OF ELECTION—OATHS. Before each general election, in regular meeting the Council shall designate as many competent persons as may be necessary to act as judges and clerks of election. Said judges and clerks, before entering upon their duties as such shall take and sub-
