

sioners so elected shall meet on the second and fourth Monday of each month, and as much oftener as they desire; and the present Commissioners of the Town of Sharptown shall hold office until the next regular election herein provided and the election and qualification of their successors. The Commissioners of Sharptown shall organize the first regular meeting after their election and qualification, and shall elect one of their number as President of the Commissioners, whose duty it shall be to preside at all meetings of the Commissioners, to preserve order, and see that the ordinances and resolutions of the said Commissioners of Sharptown are enforced.

167. At the second regular meeting after each general election the Commissioners shall appoint one or more persons, residents and qualified voters of the town, who may or may not be members of Board of Commissioners of Sharptown, to act as Clerk to the said Commissioners, collector of town taxes and treasurer for the term of one year or until successor or successors are duly appointed and qualified. Such officer or officers shall be paid such salary, commissions or fees for their services as the Commissioners of Sharptown may, from time to time, deem right and proper.

168. The said clerk, collector and treasurer, before entering upon the performance of the duties of their respective offices, shall take and subscribe to an oath before a Justice of the Peace or a Notary Public of Wicomico County that they will well and faithfully perform the duties of their respective offices according to law and the ordinances of said town. The collector and treasurer shall each give bond to the State of Maryland in an amount at least equal to the amount of taxes levied, with surety or sureties approved by the said Commissioners, conditioned that they will faithfully perform the duties of collector and treasurer in all things according to law and the ordinances of the town, and that they will account for and pay over all monies that may come into their hands as collector and treasurer in the manner required by law and said ordinances. If said clerk, collector or treasurer shall fail to qualify within ten days after appointment, said Commissioners shall appoint some other person to said office or offices for which the appointee or appointees have failed to qualify, such new appointee to comply with the requirements of the office to which he is appointed. In case of vacancy the said Commissioners shall appoint some person to fill the office for the unexpired term under the same terms and conditions as already set forth. The said clerk, collector and treasurer shall attend all the meetings of the Commissioners of Sharptown. The clerk shall keep full and accurate account of all the proceedings of the said Commissioners, record all ordinances in the
