

any of the provisions of this section, upon conviction, shall be subject to the same penalties as are provided in Section 2 of Article 2B of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of said section.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall not become effective unless and until it shall be submitted to the qualified voters living within the corporate limits of the Town of Hyattsville, as the same exists at the time of the passage of this Act, at a referendum election and accepted by a majority of the persons voting at said election. For such purpose, a referendum election of the qualified voters, as aforesaid, shall be held by the Mayor and Common Council of Hyattsville at an election, the date for which shall be fixed by it, not later than six months from the date of the passage of this Act, and said election shall be conducted under the provisions of existing laws for the election of Town officers and in accordance with such ordinances as may have been adopted or shall be adopted by the Mayor and Common Council of Hyattsville, not inconsistent with law, for the submission to the voters of said Municipality of the provisions of this Act, and the manner of the submission of the question to the voters shall be that on the ballots of such election there shall be printed a synopsis of this Act, which synopsis shall be sufficient if it shall contain the full wording of Section 494A as above enacted, and under such synopsis the words "Against the Sale of 'Hard Liquors'" with a blank square opposite at the right, and the words, "For the Sale of 'Hard Liquors'" with a blank square opposite at the right, and all qualified voters desiring to vote for the provisions of this Act shall place a cross-mark (X) in the square opposite the words, "Against the Sale of 'Hard Liquors'" and all qualified voters desiring to vote against the provisions of this Act shall place a cross-mark (X) opposite the words, "For the Sale of 'Hard Liquors'". If, at such election, a greater number of persons shall vote "Against the Sale of 'Hard Liquors'", than shall vote "For the Sale of 'Hard Liquors'", then the provisions of the foregoing sections of this Act shall become effective and operative, the effective date of the provisions of this Act, in the event the same is approved at said election, to be the date that the said Mayor and Common Council of Hyattsville shall declare the result of said election in accordance with the provisions of law or ordinances as provided herein.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That pending the submission of the provisions of this Act to the qualified voters of the Town of Hyattsville, in accordance with the provisions of Section 2 of this Act, and until the declaration by the Mayor
