

Ordinance Book and all proceedings relating to the opening, closing, widening, grading or paving of any street or alley or part thereof, including reports of Commissioners on same, in a suitable book and index same. The clerk shall also keep the assessment books of said town, with names of owners of property arranged alphabetically and the properties so described as to identify same, stating the value of each piece thereof. The collector and treasurer shall each keep full and fair account of all money received by each of them, respectively, and the treasurer shall keep a full and fair account of all money paid out and all money paid out shall be by check upon some bank where said money shall be deposited. The collector shall account to and pay over unto the treasurer at the end of each month all monies collected by him. The clerk as such shall not be required to give bond.

169. Immediately after the levy is made by the Commissioners in each year the collector shall give notice of the making of the levy by posting notice of same in at least four places in said town. He shall make out and mail or deliver in person to each taxpayer or his agent a bill or account of the taxes due by him, giving the amount of real and personal property with which he is assessed, the rate of taxation and the amount of taxes due and the date from which they bear interest. He shall keep a copy of the notice with a memorandum thereon of the date of mailing or delivering of said notice, as the case may be, which shall be prima facie evidence of the mailing or delivering of same.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1937.

Approved May 18, 1937.

CHAPTER 89.

An ACT to survey and locate the division line between Frederick and Carroll Counties from the bridge over Sam's Creek on the Buffalo Road at what was formerly Warfield's Mill to Parr's Spring, and mark the same with stones, and to provide penalties for the removal, mutilation or destruction of any stone so placed.

WHEREAS by Chapter 256 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the December session in the year 1835, and confirmed by Chapter 19 passed at the next succeeding session, the boundary line between Frederick and Carroll