

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

NO. 1.

Joint Resolution requesting the Postmaster General of the United States to issue a stamp commemorative of March 17th, generally known as St. Patrick's Day.

WHEREAS, for many years the feast day of St. Patrick has been observed on March 17th each year; and

WHEREAS, St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, has been celebrated in history and literature; and

WHEREAS, from the early days of this country, the Irish people have played an important part in the development of the country and have always been loyal to the institutions of the country; and

WHEREAS, it would seem fitting that recognition should, in some way, be given to the day generally celebrated by the Irish people in this country, namely, March 17th; therefore be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Postmaster General of the United States be and he is hereby requested to issue a commemorative stamp in recognition of St. Patrick's Day; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of State be and he is hereby directed to send, under the Great Seal of the State of Maryland, a copy of this resolution to the President of the United States and to the Postmaster General of the United States.

Approved March 17, 1937.
