NO. 18.

Joint Resolution requesting the Public Service Commission of Maryland to investigate conditions under which taxicabs are being operated in Baltimore City.

WHEREAS, It has been brought to the attention of the General Assembly that numerous calls for taxicab service in Baltimore City are met with the response that no cabs are available and that no service can be supplied except after unreasonable delay and in many cases not at all; and

WHEREAS, It has been urged upon the General Assembly that the condition complained of arises because of divergent and inconsistent reasons, the correctness of any of which can not be determined except by careful examination and study; and

WHEREAS, The Public Service Commission of Maryland in 1933, in Case No. 3303, has investigated and regulated taxi-
