

Street and to assess a part of the costs against the abutting property owners. The Attorney-General advises me that this is in violation of Article 3, Section 33 of the State Constitution and I have, therefore, vetoed the bill.

DUPLICATE BILLS.

Chapter 18, House Bill 44, authorizing the State's Attorney of Montgomery County to appoint a Clerk, is a duplicate of Chapter 507, Senate Bill 282, which has been signed.

Chapter 146, House Bill 239, relating to extradition, is a duplicate of Chapter 179, Senate Bill 118, which has been signed.

Chapter 148, House Bill 240, relating to persons on probation or parole, is a duplicate of Chapter 125, Senate Bill 117, which has been signed.

Chapter 149, House Bill 241, relating to witnesses from without the State in criminal proceedings, is a duplicate of Chapter 124, Senate Bill 116, which has been signed.

Chapter 150, House Bill 242, relating to a uniform law on fresh pursuit, is a duplicate of Chapter 123, Senate Bill 115, which has been signed.

Chapter 152, House Bill 353, and Chapter 271, House Bill 397, relating to old age pensions, are duplicates of Chapter 12, Senate Bill 12, of the Special Session, which has been signed.

Chapter 182, Senate Bill 225, relating to additional compensation to judges and clerks of election, is a duplicate of Chapter 533, House Bill 427, which has been signed.

Chapter 221, House Bill 398, relating to aid for dependent children, is a duplicate of Chapter 3, Senate Bill 11, of the Special Session of 1937, which has been signed.

Chapter 222, House Bill 399, relating to assistance for the needy blind, is a duplicate of Chapter 4, Senate Bill 13, of the Special Session, which has been signed.

Chapter 250, House Bill 417, and Chapter 251, House Bill 418, restricting the rights of a holder of a fractional interest in debts secured by mortgage, are duplicates of Chapter 173, Senate Bill 222, and Chapter 174, Senate Bill 223, which have been signed.

Chapter 307, Senate Bill 200, relating to permanent registration in Montgomery County, is a duplicate of Chapter 9, Senate Bill 31 of the Special Session, which has been signed.