

to deliver the same in a sealed package or container, which package or container shall not be opened or its contents consumed on the premises where sold. It shall be lawful for any licensee by making application and on payment of the required fees, as herein provided, to obtain both "Class A—On Sale Beer License" and "Class B—Off Sale Liquor and Wine License."

Class (C) "Special Beer License." Five Dollars ($5.00) per day. Such a license shall authorize any club, society or association, at the place therein described and for a period not exceeding one day, to keep for sale and to sell beer at retail for consumption on or off the premises.

Class (D) "Distributor's Beer License." Annual fee Fifty Dollars ($50.00). Any person desiring to sell and distribute beer at wholesale, either from a central location or by a vehicle, as in this paragraph described to holders of retail "on sale beer licenses" in Howard County shall apply for and obtain a "distributor's beer license" and pay therefor an annual fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00). The holder of any such license shall be authorized to purchase from a licensed importer and keep for sale at the place or places therein described, and to sell beer in the original package at wholesale from a central office or location which shall be designated in the license to any retail "on sale beer license" holder in Howard County, and to deliver the same from the places designated in the license to the purchaser or to a common carrier for such delivery, and delivery from a truck or vehicle under the exclusive control of the holder of such a license of beverages previously purchased by and delivered to the license holder, shall constitute delivery from his place of business within the meaning of this section. Application for such a license shall be in writing supported by the oath of the applicant, stating his name, place of residence, age, and general place of business. No license under this section shall be issued to any person under the age of twenty-one years. Nothing in this paragraph shall apply to the holder of a manufacturer's or wholesaler's license issued by the State of Maryland, pursuant to Article 2-B, Code of Public General Laws of Maryland.

209. Applications for Class A, B and C licenses authorized by this Act shall be executed under oath on forms prescribed and issued by the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Howard County, which shall contain particularly the following:

- (1) Class of license desired.
- (2) Name and residence of applicant and how long resident at the address.
