

of law covering the same, and that no indictment or complaint is pending against him at the time on account of any liquor violation, whereupon the Clerk shall issue a certificate of cancellation to the Board of County Commissioners, which Board shall refund to such licensee the unearned portion of the fee paid for such license, accounting from the day of cancellation to the expiration thereof.

(B) On the death of the holder of any license issued under this Act, the same shall expire but upon application to the Clerk of the Circuit Court and the payment of One Dollar ($1.00) made by the executor or administrator of the deceased licensee, a certificate may be granted authorizing the continuation of the business in the name of such executor or administrator for the benefit of decedent's estate until the date of expiration of such license, subject to all provisions of this Act applicable to the original licensee. If the business of the deceased licensee be not continued, his executor or administrator may apply to the Clerk of the Circuit Court and obtain a refund from the date of application for the same to the date of expiration of such license.

(C) Whenever any license issued under this Act has been lost or destroyed, the Clerk of the Circuit Court shall have power, upon application under oath and statement of facts regarding the loss or destruction of the license, to issue, upon payment to the Clerk of a fee of One Dollar ($1.00), another license to be marked "duplicate" in addition to all information appearing on the original license.

(D) The Clerk of the Circuit Court shall keep an accurate record of every license issued under the provisions of this Act, and whenever any license has been cancelled or revoked shall note the same, and all such records shall be open to public inspection.

218. No holder of Class A, B or C licenses shall purchase alcoholic beverages except from a duly licensed manufacturer or wholesaler under Article 2-B of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, or from the holder of a Class D "Distributor's Beer License" under this Act. And no holder of a Class A, B or C license shall at any time keep or permit to be kept upon the licensed premises any alcoholic beverages except those so purchased and authorized to be sold under the provisions of this Act. No holder of a Class A, B or C license shall be permitted to employ any solicitor or salesman to solicit outside of the licensed place of business orders for the sale of any alcoholic beverages within this State, and no sale of alcoholic beverages may be consummated outside of the licensed place of business. Nothing herein contained shall