219. No holder of a manufacturer's or wholesaler's license, and no distiller, brewer, distributor, rectifier, blender or bottler of alcoholic beverages or the owner of any interest in any distributor, distillery, brewery, rectifying, blending or bottling plant shall be permitted to enter into any agreement with any retail dealer, the effect or purpose of which is to limit the purchases or sales of any such retail dealer to the products of any one or more of such producers, it being the intent and purpose of this Act that every retail dealer shall at all times be and remain free to purchase the alcoholic beverages sold by him, from any holder of a manufacturer's or wholesaler's license issued under the provisions of Article 2-B, Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, or from the holder of a Class B Distributor's Beer License issued under this Act.

220. It shall be unlawful for any holder of a manufacturer's or wholesaler's license, or holder of a Class D-Distributor's Beer license issued under this Act, or any one connected with the business of such holder, or any other distiller, brewer, rectifier, blender, bottler, or distributor, to have any financial interest in the premises upon or in which any alcoholic beverage is sold at retail by any licensee, or in any business conducted by such licensee; and it shall also be unlawful for any such person or any one connected with his, its or their business, to lend any money or other thing of value, or make any gift or to offer any gratuity to any retail dealer, and it shall also be unlawful for any such person to furnish any sign, display or other form of advertisement of any value in excess of Five Dollars ($5.00), advertising the products of a particular manufacturer or wholesaler, distiller, brewer, rectifier, blender, bottler, or distributor, to the holder of any retail license issued under the provisions of this Act; and, except as above provided, no retail dealer shall accept, receive or make use of any money, gift, sign or display furnished by any manufacturer or wholesaler, or any distiller, brewer, rectifier, blender, bottler, or distributor, or become indebted to any such person except for the purchase of alcoholic beverages.

221. Should any portion or portions of this Act be held invalid for any reason whatsoever, such invalidity shall not be construed as affecting the validity of the remainder of this Act or any part thereof, it being the legislative intent that said remainder of the Act shall stand in full force and effect notwithstanding any partial invalidity.

222. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Act except Section 215, shall upon conviction by the Circuit Court
