

(7) The words "protective counter" shall mean a counter or protective device or devices that will register each time the machine is operated, and shall be so constructed and so connected that it cannot be reset, altered, or operated, except by operating the machine;

(8) The words "voting machine booth" shall mean the enclosure occupied by the voter when voting;

(9) The word "model" shall mean a mechanically operating model of a portion of the face of the machine, illustrating the manner of voting;

(10) The word "custodian" shall mean the person charged with the duty of testing and preparing the voting machine for the election, and instructing the election officers in the use of the voting machine;

(11) The words "election" and "elections," whenever used in this Act, shall be held to include and mean all general, municipal, primary and special elections.

224-F. Every voting machine acquired or used under the provisions of this sub-title shall:

(a) Provide facilities for voting for such candidates as may be nominated, and upon such questions as may be submitted;

(b) Permit each voter, in one operation, to vote for all the candidates of one party for presidential electors;

(c) Permit each voter, at other than primary elections, to vote a ticket selected from the nominees of any and all parties and from independent nominations;

(d) Permit each voter to vote, at any election, for any person and for any office for whom and for which he is lawfully entitled to vote, and to vote for as many persons for an office as he is entitled to vote for, including a substantial compliance with the provisions of Section 203 of this Article, and to vote for or against any question which appears upon a ballot-label;

(e) Preclude each voter from voting for more persons for any office than he is entitled to vote for, and from voting for any candidate for the same office or upon any question more than once;

(f) Be capable of adjustment by election officers, so as to permit each voter at a primary election to vote only for the candidates seeking nomination by the political party with which he is affiliated, if he is affiliated with a political party, and so as to preclude him from voting for the candidates seeking nomination by any political party with which he is not affiliated;
