

(g) Permit each voter to change his vote for any candidate, or upon any question appearing upon the ballot-labels, up to the time he begins the final operation to register his vote, or indicates or expresses his intention to register his vote;

(h) Permit and require voting in absolute secrecy, and shall be so constructed that no person can see or know for whom any other voter has voted or is voting, save a voter whom he has assisted or is assisting in voting as prescribed by law;

(i) Have voting devices for separate candidates and questions, which shall be arranged in separate parallel rows or columns, so that, at any primary election, one or more adjacent rows or columns may be assigned to the candidates of a party, and shall have parallel office columns or rows transverse thereto;

(j) Have a counter, or other device, to be known as a "public counter", the register of which is visible from the outside of the machine, which shall show during any period of voting the total number of voters who have operated the machine during said period of voting;

(k) Have a protective counter, or other device, the register of which cannot be reset, which shall record the cumulative total number of movements of the operating mechanism;

(l) Be provided with a lock or locks, by means of which, immediately after the polls are closed, or the operation of the machine for an election is completed, all movement of the registering mechanism is absolutely prevented;

(m) Be provided with a screen, hood or curtain, which shall conceal the actions of the voter while voting;

(n) Be constructed of material of good quality, in a neat and workmanlike manner;

(o) When properly operated, register or record correctly and accurately every vote cast;

(p) Be so constructed that a voter may readily learn the method of operating it;

(q) Be safely transportable;

(r) Be so constructed and controlled that, during the progress of voting, it shall preclude every person from seeing or knowing the number of votes registered for any candidate, and from tampering with any of the registering mechanism.

224-G.

(a) The papers, cards or strips, enclosed within the ballot-frame or frames of any voting machine, and containing the names of a candidate or candidates, and his, her or their political party, or the statement of a question to be voted upon, hereinafter referred to as ballot-labels, shall be printed
