

provided hereinbefore in Section 224-O of this sub-title. If more than one voting machine is used in any precinct, the vote registered on each machine shall be ascertained in like manner, and separately entered in appropriate spaces on the general and triplicate return sheets and statement. The total vote cast for each candidate, and for and against each question, shall then be computed and entered on the general and triplicate return sheets and statement. There shall also be entered on the general return sheet and statement the number of voters who have voted, as shown by the lists of voters, and the number who have voted on each machine, as shown by the public counters, and also the number registered on the protective counter or device on each machine immediately prior to the opening of the polls and immediately after the closing thereof and sealing of the machine. The number or other designation of each machine used shall also be entered thereon. In the case of primary elections, triplicate return sheets shall be prepared for each party. The registering counters of the voting machines shall remain exposed to view until the said returns and all other reports have been fully completed. During such time, any candidate, or duly accredited watcher, who may desire to be present, shall be admitted to the polling-place.

(c) The proclamation of the result of the votes cast shall be announced distinctly and audibly by one of the judges of election, who shall read the name of each candidate, the designation or designating numbers and letters of his counters and the vote registered on each counter, also the vote cast for and against each question submitted. During such proclamation ample opportunity shall be given to any person lawfully present to compare the results so announced with the counter dials of the machine, and any necessary corrections shall then and there be made by the judges, after which the doors or other cover of the voting machine shall be closed and locked and the return sheet shall be signed by each of the judges of election. If any judge shall decline to sign such return, he shall state his reason therefor in writing, and a copy thereof, signed by himself, shall be enclosed with such return. Each of the return sheets shall be enclosed in an envelope, which shall then be secretly sealed with sealing wax, or other sealing material, and each of the judges shall write his name across the fold of the envelope. One of the triplicate return sheets shall be directed to the Clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, one to the Mayor of the City of Baltimore, and one to the Register of Wills of Baltimore City, and the general return sheet and statement shall be directed to the Board of Supervisors of Election of Baltimore City. The judges of election shall promptly deliver the keys of the voting machine, inclosed in a sealed envelope, to the officials authorized by law
