

or perform his duties, or to violate any law prescribed for regulating the same; or shall aid, counsel, procure or advise any voter, person or officer of registration to do any act by law forbidden, or in this Article constituting an offense, or to omit to do any act by law directed to be done, every such person, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in jail or in the penitentiary for not less than six months nor more than five years.

118. Whoever shall, except as in this Article otherwise provided, allow his ballot to be seen by any person with the apparent intention of letting it be known how he is about to vote, or place any distinguishing mark upon his ballot, or who shall make a false statement as to his inability to mark his ballot, or to operate a voting machine, or who shall interfere or attempt to interfere with any voter when inside the enclosed space in the polling-room, or when marking his ballot, or when operating a voting machine, or who shall endeavor to induce any voter before voting to show how he marks or has marked his ballot, or shall, between the time of the opening and the time of the closing of the polls, open the door or other covering concealing the counters of any voting machine, except as provided by Section 224-K (i) of this Article, shall be punished by fine of not less than five ($5) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100) dollars, or by imprisonment in jail for a period not exceeding sixty days, or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

127. The compensation of all judges and clerks of election in the City of Baltimore, except in those precincts in which, after 1939, voting machines shall be used, and in the counties shall be increased two dollars ($2.00) per day over and above the amount allowed and paid prior to the passage of Chapter 1 of the Acts of the General Assembly in special session in the year 1920. The Boards of Supervisors of Elections of the several counties shall have power, with the consent of the County Commissioners to increase the compensation of the registration officials not more than $2.00 per day in addition to the amount allowed and paid, prior to the passage of said Act. Provided, however, that this Section shall not apply to Queen Anne's or Worcester Counties.

132. At least thirty days before every State election the Attorney General shall prepare full instructions for the guidance of the voters at such election as to obtaining ballots, as to the manner of marking them, and as to obtaining new ballots in place of those accidentally destroyed, with such other instructions as shall in his opinion be necessary and
