SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1937.

Approved May 28, 1937.

CHAPTER 141.

AN ACT to add one new section to Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Burglary" said new section to be known as Section 35A, to follow immediately after Section 35 of said Article, and to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 36 of said Article 27, defining the crime of Burglary.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That one new section, said new section to be known as Section 35A, be and is hereby added to Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Burglary," to follow immediately after Section 35 of said Article, and that Section 36 of said Article 27 be and is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, so as to read as follows:

35A. Every person, his aiders, abettors and counsellors, who shall break and enter any dwelling house in the night time with the intent to steal, take or carry away the personal goods of another of any value therefrom shall be deemed a felon, and shall be guilty of the crime of burglary.

36. Every person, his aiders, abettors and counsellors, who shall be convicted of the crime of breaking a dwelling house in the day time with intent to commit murder or felony therein, or with the intent to steal, take or carry away the personal goods of another of any value therefrom, or breaking a storehouse, warehouse or other out-house in the day or night with an intent to commit murder or felony therein, or with the intent to steal, take or carry away the personal goods of another of any value therefrom, shall be sentenced to the penitentiary for not more than ten years.

Approved May 18, 1937.
