

vision of this Act, he shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) nor more than Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00), and imprisoned in the county jail or House of Correction for not less than one year nor more than two years. A certified transcript from the docket of the Police Justice, or a certified copy of the record, under seal, of the Clerk of any Court shall be sufficient evidence of a previous conviction or convictions under any section of this Act.

301J. All places where intoxicating liquor is sold in violation of any provision of this Act, shall be taken and held and are declared to be public nuisances, and may be abated as such; and it shall be part of the judgment of the Police Justice, or of the Court, as the case may be, upon conviction of the keeper, that the place where liquor is found to have been sold contrary to this Act to be shut up and abated until the keeper shall give bond, with sufficient security to be approved by the Police Justice, or the Court, in the penal sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00), payable to the State of Maryland, conditional that he will not sell intoxicating liquor contrary to law, and will pay all fines, costs and damages assessed against him for any violation thereof, and in case of a violation of the condition of such bond, suit may be brought and recovery had thereon for the use of the said County of Queen Anne's for any fine or fines, costs and damages that may be assessed against him under this Act; and in the event a jury trial shall be prayed when the case is brought before the Police Justice, or any appeal shall be taken, the place where the liquor is alleged to have been sold contrary to this Act shall be shut up and abated until the alleged offender shall give bond, with sufficient security to be approved by the Police Justice, in the penal sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00), payable to the State of Maryland, conditional that pending said appeal and/or final disposition of the case he will not sell intoxicating liquor contrary to law, and will pay all fines, costs and damages assessed against him for any violation thereof, and in case of a violation of the condition of such bond, suit may be brought and recovery had thereon for the use of the said County of Queen Anne's for any fine or fines, costs and damages that may be assessed against him under this Act.

301K. (A) If any person or any officer of the law makes a sworn complaint or an affidavit before the Police Justice or any justice of the peace for and of Queen Anne's County, particularly describing the house, store, boat, motor vehicle, aeroplane, premises or any other place or thing to be searched, and the things to be searched for, that he has reason to be-