

Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Charles County", sub-title "Liquor and Intoxicating Liquors", as enacted by Chapter 127 of the Laws of 1935, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

207. It shall be unlawful for any licensee under this sub-title to sell to any minor or habitual drunkard. And it shall also be unlawful for any licensee under this sub-title to sell liquors on the Sabbath Day commonly called Sunday, or any Election Day, nor shall any liquors be sold by any licensee between the hours of 12 midnight and 6 o'clock A. M. But this section shall not prevent the sale of any wine, beer or other spirituous or fermented beverages containing less than 8% alcohol by volume, on any day or at any time, except the day of any General, Special or Primary Election. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon trial and conviction shall be subjected to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, or may be confined in the County Jail or in the House of Correction for not less than sixty days; and the Court in its discretion may suppress the license of any licensee, and no license shall be issued either to the person or to the place wherein the law has been violated for a period of six months, and upon the suppressing of said license, there shall be no return of the license money to the licensee.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1937.

Approved April 26, 1937.

CHAPTER 33.

AN ACT to provide for a bond issue by the Town Commissioners of Centreville, Queen Anne's County, Maryland, a Municipal Corporation, for the purpose of providing additional equipment for and making improvements at the electric plant of said municipal corporation.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Town Commissioners of Centreville, a Municipal Corporation, are hereby authorized and empowered in their discretion to borrow upon the faith and credit of said town, a sum not to exceed sixty-six thousand dollars, for the purpose of providing additional equipment for and making improve-
