

other shift or device to evade any provision of this Act, shall be held to be an unlawful selling.

301N. In all prosecutions under this Act, by charge, indictment or otherwise, it shall not be necessary to state the kind of liquor sold, handled or involved, nor to describe the place where sold, handled or involved, nor to show the knowledge of the principal to convict for the acts of an agent or servant, nor to state the name of any person to whom the liquor is sold, but it shall be sufficient to state in that regard that the act complained of took place in said Queen Anne's County. The issuance of an internal revenue special tax stamp, or receipt by the United States, to any person as a wholesale or retail dealer in liquors or in malt liquors at any place within Queen Anne's County shall be prima facie evidence of the sale of alcoholic beverages of the class authorized to be sold under such stamp or receipt by such person at such place, or at any place of business of such person, within such territory where such stamp or receipt is posted, and at the time charged in any suit or prosecution under this Act; provided, such time is within the life of such stamp or receipt.

301-O. All prosecutions for violations of this Act which are hereby declared to be misdemeanors, may be either upon presentment or indictment or by trial before the Police Justice of Queen Anne's County, who shall have jurisdiction, original and concurrent, with the Circuit Court for the said County, and the said Police Justice shall have power to issue all process, and to do all acts which may be necessary to the exercise of his said jurisdiction, and may try and determine all cases whereof he may have jurisdiction, and may pronounce judgment and sentence therein in the same manner and to the same extent as the Circuit Court for the said county could do in such cases if such cases were tried before said Court without the intervention of a jury; provided, however, that if any person, when brought before the Police Justice shall, before trial for the alleged offense pray a jury trial, or if the State's Attorney for said county shall, before trial of such alleged offense, pray a trial by jury on the part of the State, it shall be the duty of the Police Justice to commit such alleged offender for trial, or to hold him to bail to appear for trial in the Circuit Court of the said county if it be in session, or at its next session if it be not in session, and to return said commitment or recognizance with the names and residences of witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, forthwith, to the Clerk of said Court, and the Police Justice shall, in every such case, inform the person charged of his right to a jury trial. If after trial before the Police Justice, either party shall feel aggrieved by the judgment of such Police Justice,
