

ty", sub-title "County Commissioners", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

207. At the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November in the year nineteen hundred and forty-two (1942) and every four years thereafter, there shall be elected three County Commissioners for Anne Arundel County; said Commissioners shall meet at their office in the Court House at Annapolis, for the transaction of the duties of their office at least one day in each week, and on such other days as they may deem necessary.

A person to be eligible to the office of County Commissioners in Anne Arundel County shall have actually resided in the county for at least ten years, and shall be a taxpayer upon real estate in said county assessed for at least two thousand dollars. The Chairman, who shall give his full time to the duties of his office, shall receive a salary of Four Thousand ($4,000.00) Dollars per year and the other two Commissioners shall each receive a salary of Twelve Hundred ($1,200.00) Dollars per year, without mileage or other extra compensation of any kind.

At the primary elections held in Anne Arundel County at which candidates are to be selected for the positions of County Commissioners, the candidate of each party for Chairman shall be nominated by the voters of said parties in the entire County, but the voters of the respective parties of the Third, Fourth and Fifth Election Districts shall nominate a candidate for County Commissioner and the voters of said respective parties of the First, Second, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Election Districts shall nominate a candidate for County Commissioner. The Supervisors of Elections of Anne Arundel County shall place the names of all persons who file papers for the position of Chairman of the County Commissioners upon the ballots to be used by the respective parties throughout the entire County and shall place the names of persons who file papers for the position of County Commissioner from the Third, Fourth and Fifth Election Districts only upon the ballots to be used by the respective parties in said districts and shall place the names of persons who file papers for the position of County Commissioners from the First, Second, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Election Districts only upon the ballots to be used by the respective parties in said districts.

The candidates who receive the greatest number of votes in each instance at said primary election shall be certified by the Supervisors of Elections as the nominees of the political parties to which they belong, and the names of said nominees shall be placed on the official ballot to be used in the general election.