

that may be dangerous to persons passing along or over any of the said highways of the said town; to make reasonable regulations in regard to buildings to be erected in said town and to grant building permits for the same; to open and extend streets, to open alleys, to cause the water courses and drains or sewers of said town to be kept in repair and cleaned; to grant licenses for marketable commodities; to license pool and billiard parlors, bowling alleys, shooting galleries and to regulate the hours thereof; to regulate and provide for the control of public grounds and the property of the town; to establish and regulate a station house or lockup for the temporary confinement of the violators of the laws and ordinances of the town, to suppress vagrancy and to prohibit the keeping of bawdy houses or houses of ill-fame within the said corporate limits, and to provide for the punishment of all persons who shall knowingly keep or suffer to be kept in their property any such houses; to regulate and provide for the issuing of licenses or permits for all hawking, peddling or vending of wares and merchandise of every description on the streets or highways of the town, and to issue licenses or permits to all itinerant persons who dispense medicine; to demand a license from all players or showmen exhibiting within the said town; and to license all business within the incorporated limits of Cresaptown.

They shall also have power to regulate the sanitary conditions of the town and to establish a Board of Health for the proper control of contagious diseases; they may provide for the codification of all ordinances which may from time to time be passed for the purposes of carrying out the foregoing powers; and in order to enforce the observance of said ordinances, in addition to the action of debt or such civil remedies as may exist in such cases by law for the recovery of the penalty thereto affixed, they may affix thereto such reasonable fines not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00) in any one case as to them may appear just and proper, and in default of payment of any fine so imposed, they may provide for imprisonment of the offender for a period not exceeding twenty days in the county jail until said fine is paid.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the said Mayor and Commissioners of Cresaptown shall have the power to levy an equal tax within the corporate limits of said town, to such an extent or amount each year not to exceed twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars worth of assessed valuation as they may deem necessary for the government of said town. This twenty-five cent tax may be raised to any amount not at any time exceeding fifty cents on each one hundred dollars, but such an increase must first be authorized by a vote of a