

Commission, or required by the Public General Laws of Maryland; and, in making any such general re-assessment, the State Tax Commission is hereby authorized to have the same conducted in Anne Arundel County by the Assessing Department of said County, as hereinbefore constituted. And it shall be the duty of the Chief Assessor or his assistant or clerk, within thirty days next succeeding any return of the Chief Assessor, to notify the person or corporation newly assessed or re-assessed, if his, her or its postoffice be known to him, of such new or additional assessments, and in the notice shall be contained a statement of the items of property and the valuation thereof, and said notice shall be sent by registered mail by the said Clerk to the person or corporation assessed, if his, her or its postoffice address be known to, or can be ascertained by, said Clerk by reasonable inquiry. And on the day named in the said notice, it shall be the duty of said Chief Assessor to be present to hear any complaint that may be submitted, and to support the assessment previously made by him, the proceedings in connection with the said complaint to be as now prescribed by the laws on said subject. For carrying out the provisions of this section, the said Chief Assessor shall have power to appoint such competent assistant or associates, to be approved by the County Commissioners, as the work of his department may require, provided that the total compensation and expense thereof shall be limited as follows: One assistant or associate assessor at a salary not exceeding Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1,200.00) a year, and one clerk at a salary not exceeding Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1,200.00) a year, whose duties shall also include such services in connection with the issuing of building permits as the County Commissioners may prescribe. The Chief Assessor shall receive the annual salary now allowed him by law, in addition to which the County Commissioners shall also include such services in connection with the issuing of building permits as the County Commissioners may prescribe. The Chief Assessor shall receive the annual salary now allowed him by law, in addition to which the County Commissioners shall allow a fee or commission, not exceeding $1.50 per thousand dollars on all assessments of new or missed property, the said commission or fee to be paid to the said Chief Assessor and his assistant or associates in such equitable proportions as the said County Commissioners shall by regulation prescribe, which payment shall cover, also, all incidental expenses whatsoever in connection with the said assessing department.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts, general or local, inconsistent with the provisions of
