

157. On the day fixed by law of the United States for choice of President and Vice-President of the United States there shall be elected by general tickets as many electors of President and Vice-President as this State shall be entitled to appoint; provided that the names of the candidates for the office of electors of President and Vice-President of the United States shall not be printed on the ballot but in lieu thereof the names of the candidates of each political party for the office of President and Vice-President shall be printed thereon; and a vote for said candidates for President and Vice-President shall be deemed and counted as a vote for each of the Presidential electors of said party named in the certificate of nomination of such Presidential candidates filed according to the provisions of this Article.

158. Each citizen of this State entitled to vote for delegates to the General Assembly shall have the right to vote for the whole number of electors as provided in the preceding section; and the Presidential electors of the candidates for President and Vice-President who receive the highest number of notes shall be declared to be elected as said electors, and shall be deemed so appointed.

160. The said election shall in all respects be conducted as other elections, except as otherwise provided in this Article and the returns thereof made and canvassed as hereinbefore directed.

162. The electors for this State shall meet in the State House in the City of Annapolis and give their votes for President and Vice-President of the United States on the day fixed by law of the United States for meetings of electors of President and Vice-President of the United States.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That Section 27 of Article 41 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, 1924 Edition, title "Governor-Executive and Administrative Departments", subtitle "Governor", be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

27. The Governor upon receiving the returns of election for electors to choose a President and Vice-President of the United States and for members to represent this State in the Congress of the United States shall enumerate and ascertain the number of votes given for each person voted for as member of Congress, and shall enumerate and ascertain the number of votes given for each candidate for President and Vice-President of the United States, declaring elected the Presidential electors of such candidates as received the highest number of
