

dens of the County to prosecute all persons found violating the law by failing or refusing to comply with its provisions.

Payment of the license tax subsequent to the issuance of a summons or warrant by a magistrate or other court for failure to do so within the time required shall not operate to relieve said owner from the penalties provided. Any dog not wearing a license tag of the proper calendar year shall prima facie be deemed to be unlicensed and in any proceedings under this Act the burden of proof of the fact that such dog has been licensed, or is otherwise not required to bear a tag at the time, shall be on the owner of said dog.

256D. DISPOSITION OF LICENSE FEES, PENALTIES AND FINES. The County Treasurer shall keep receipts of dog license fees, penalties, and fines, and expenditures incident to operation and enforcement of this Act in separate accounts for each election district and monthly receipts in each district shall be apportioned as follows:

5% to Expense Fund: For purchase of license certificates, tags, and the extra expense of their issuance, the printing of this Act in pamphlet form and the purchase of census books and other printed matter connected with this Act.

25% to Commission Fund: For payments of commissions to Wardens on licenses issued as herein provided.

25% to Bounty Fund: For payment to Wardens on wild and dead dog account as herein provided.

20% to Pound Fund: For payment of rent or services at some established shelter within the County or shall be allowed to accumulate and be used for the establishment and maintenance of one or more pounds throughout the County.

25% to Claims Fund: For payment of awards for destruction of domestic animals in order of date and time of filing as herein provided.

At the end of the calendar year after payment of all charges against each account, any balance remaining in the Expense and Bounty Funds shall be passed to the Claims Fund for payment of any unsettled claims filed and awarded and unpaid at the end of the year. Any balance remaining in the Claims Fund after payment of all such claims, shall then be passed to the Pound Fund for use in connection with its purposes.

All receipts from fines, imposed incident to this Act, shall be credited to a Fines Fund and after payment of the compensation due to the Warden for each fine adjudged in cases reported by him, the balance of the fund at the end of the year shall be credited to the Pound Fund.

256E. LICENSE CERTIFICATE. The County Commissioners, not later than November 1st each year, shall furnish the County Treasurer with a supply of license certificates together with
