

ing given for the accused's appearance at Court as herein required, shall at once transmit on order reciting this fact to the officer in whose custody he may be, and directing his discharge, and in default of such surety being given, the said Justice shall send a commitment to the sheriff of the County commanding him to receive the prisoner and hold him for his appearance at Court to answer said charge; and on the presentation of the copy of such commitment by the sheriff to the officer in whose custody the prisoner may be, such officer shall at once deliver the prisoner to the sheriff, and it shall be the duty of the sheriff upon receipt of such commitment to forthwith obtain such prisoner if he be not in his custody. Provided, however, that in any case where the accused when brought before such Police Justice freely elects to be tried before said Police Justice, and the fine imposed for the offense committed, if the accused be adjudged guilty, is $10 or less, exclusive of costs, there shall be no appeal to the Circuit Court for Prince George's County; but should said accused after conviction and the imposition of said fine of $10 or less, exclusive of costs, feel aggrieved by the judgment of said Police Justice, he may within ten days after said conviction, exclusive of the day on which said judgment was rendered, make application in the usual way to the Circuit Court for Prince George's County for the writ of certiorari, and bring the matter of his conviction before said Court, and to be there heard and determined de novo on its merits as if the same were an appeal from a decision of a Justice of the Peace in said County. Provided, further, that in case any person shall be taken into custody because of the violation of any of the provisions of Sections 171 to 210, both inclusive, of Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Licenses," sub-title "Motor Vehicles," or any subsequent act in relation thereto, he shall forthwith be taken in Prince George's County before the nearest Justice of the Peace, and should said Justice of the Peace be other than the Police Justice, he shall be released from custody on giving bond or undertaking executed by a fidelity or surety company authorized to give such bond in this State, or by a person or persons acceptable as surety or sureties by said Justice of the Peace, said bond or undertaking to be in such reasonable amount as the Justice may prescribe, and to be conditioned for his appearance before the Police Justice in this Act provided, at some time and place where said Police Justice will sit within ten days from the date of said recognizance, and as designated in said recognizance, or on giving his personal undertaking to appear before said Police Justice, secured by a deposit of a sum not to exceed the maximum amount prescribed as a fine for such offense, and in case such bond or undertaking shall not be given,
