

shall have been complied with, and shall arrest or cause the said person or persons, members of any school board, board of governors, board of managers, public official, or members composing any body or board having the supervision, management or control of such buildings, schoolhouses or institutions, to be arrested, and upon conviction before any justice of the peace of the city or county of the State of Maryland wherein the owner or owners, members of any school board, board of governors, board of managers, public official, or members composing any body or board having the supervision, management or control of such buildings, schoolhouses or institutions, reside, or the respective building or buildings may be located, shall pay a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or less than twenty-five dollars for each offense, and an additional fine of five dollars for each and every day thereafter that such violation shall continue; and if the accused shall feel himself aggrieved by the judgment of the justice of the peace, he shall have the right of appeal to the circuit court for the county or the criminal court of Baltimore City having jurisdiction and be entitled to a jury trial. This Act, however, shall not conflict with any existing laws or ordinances in any of the towns or cities of the State of Maryland that fully cover the subject matter dealt with in this section.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1937.

Approved May 18, 1937.

---

CHAPTER 280.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 98A of Article 39 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Fish and Fisheries", sub-title "Crabs", as enacted by Chapter 137 of the Acts of the First Extraordinary Session of 1936, pertaining to the season for taking Crabs.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 98A of Article 39 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Fish and Fisheries", sub-title "Crabs", as enacted by Chapter 137 of the Acts of the First Extraordinary Session of 1936, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

98A. The Conservation Commission shall have the power and authority to prohibit the taking of hard crabs in any of