

other fines; provided, however, that the power aforesaid to punish for contempt shall not be construed to extend to any cases arising in Traffic Court, except the cases specifically set forth and provided for in Section 4 of Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland as within the power of the several courts of this State to inflict summary punishments for contempt of court.

The Police Commissioner of Baltimore City shall designate for service in the Traffic Court four or more members of the police force of the rank of sergeants, one of whom shall be assigned to each of the parts or sessions of the Traffic Court herein provided, and who shall execute the powers and directions of Justice presiding at said session. The members of the police force who are now or have heretofore been designated for service in the Traffic Court shall have the rank of lieutenants, shall receive the salary of lieutenant and shall be subject to the same rights and duties in regard to the Pension Fund as are now or may hereafter be given or imposed by law, relating to lieutenants, irrespective of any change in their assignment, but the rank, pay and Pension Fund duties and privileges of such sergeants of the police force who shall hereafter be designated for service in the Traffic Court shall not be changed or affected by such designation. In addition to the number of Station House clerks now provided for by law, said Police Commissioner is hereby authorized and directed to employ such number of additional clerks as may be necessary to properly keep the dockets and records of arrests and convictions. Such records shall be kept in such form and under such plan as may be jointly agreed upon by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles and the Justices of the Peace of the Traffic Court. Salaries paid to police and all clerks assigned for duty in the Traffic Court shall be paid by the Police Commissioner out of the funds received for that purpose from the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles. There shall be one chief clerk, who shall receive the salary of Two Thousand Two Hundred Dollars per annum, payable monthly, and who shall have general charge and supervision of the entire clerical force of the Traffic Court, and there shall be one deputy clerk assigned to each of the sitting Magistrates and one deputy clerk to take charge of the Probation Department of said Court, who shall also perform such other work as may be assigned to him and each of said clerks shall receive the salary of Two Thousand Dollars per annum, payable monthly, there shall also be such other or additional clerks as may be necessary to properly keep the records and accounts of the Court. The Deputy Clerk assigned to each of the several magistrates shall collect and take charge of all fines, penalties, forfeitures, fees and costs im-
