

Police Commissioners. After said period all other officers, except probationary officers, shall hold their positions pending good behavior and physical and mental qualification therefor. The Superintendent of Police and all other officers shall be subject to removal for cause after hearing at any time by the Police Commissioners. The Superintendent of Police may suspend, with or without pay, fine, or otherwise discipline any of said Police Officers provided that such officers shall have a right of appeal to the Police Commissioners. The Police Commissioners when sitting as a trial court or as a court of appeal, as above provided, shall have power to administer oaths and to subpoena witnesses and records material to the subject matter of the hearing.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Police Commissioners shall provide for training the probationary officers during their probationary period and the other officers of the force from time to time when, in their judgment, they consider it advisable. Such training shall consist, as far as possible, of instruction in physical culture, self-defense, first aid, the use and care of all necessary fire arms, criminal law procedure and the production of evidence, the theory and practice of police work, investigation of crime and the apprehension of criminals, nature and method of keeping records and making reports and such other matters as the Police Commissioners shall consider necessary to train an efficient Police Force in Prince George's County.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the Superintendent of the Prince George's County Police shall receive a salary of Twenty-five Hundred ($2500.00) Dollars per annum, payable in equal monthly installments and no other fees or compensation whatsoever except that the Police Commissioners are authorized to pay the actual expense for the maintenance and upkeep of an automobile to be used by him and the sum of Sixty ($60.00) Dollars per annum for uniforms to be worn by said Superintendent of Police as the Police Commissioners may prescribe. The Superintendent of Police shall have full control and supervision over the other members of the force and shall assign the Sergeants and Police Officers and Desk Clerks to such duties and to such hours as he may judge best. He shall make, with the approval of the Police Commissioners, such rules and regulations for their proper government and discipline as he may deem best to promote the efficiency of said Force, a copy of such rules and regulations to be furnished to each member of the Force. He shall have exclusive and full control and supervision over the lock-up in the sub-station in the upper portion of the County and commitments by Justices
