

also a tax in each year upon all said assessable property in said county sufficient to pay the principal of said bonds as said bonds respectively mature and are due and payable.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the authority herein granted is hereby declared to be exclusive and shall not be construed to be in addition to or supplementary of any other authority to borrow money and issue bonds heretofore conferred upon the County Commissioners of Montgomery County or upon the Board of Education of Montgomery County, and in the event the County Commissioners of Montgomery County proceed to borrow money and issue bonds under this Act upon the terms and conditions herein prescribed, then any authority heretofore granted to the County Commissioners of Montgomery County or to the Board of Education of Montgomery County to borrow money or issue bonds for school construction purposes, to the extent that such authority has not been exercised at the time the County Commissioners of Montgomery County avails itself of the authority hereby granted, be and the same is hereby repealed, revoked and rescinded as of such time.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a ye and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all of the Members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved May 18, 1937.

---

CHAPTER 336.

AN ACT to provide for the naming of the improved state road between Baltimore City and Annapolis as "The Ritchie Highway", in order to perpetuate the name of the late Honorable Albert C. Ritchie.

WHEREAS, In order to perpetuate the name of the late Honorable Albert C. Ritchie, for fifteen years Governor of Maryland, it is deemed appropriate that the improved state road between Annapolis and Baltimore City should be named "The Ritchie Highway".