

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the improved state road between Annapolis and Baltimore City shall hereafter be known as The Ritchie Highway.

Approved May 18, 1937.

---

CHAPTER 337.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Chapter 532 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, session of 1935 as the same is codified in Article 33 of Bagby's Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland as sections 224B, 224C, and 224D, and to add eight new sections to said Article, said new sections to be known as Sections 224E to 224L, inclusive, and to follow immediately after Section 224D, so as to provide for the acquisition and use of voting machines in all of the Polling places in Montgomery County; providing for the form of the ballot labels to be used on said voting machines; providing for the number of voting machines to be furnished to each polling place; providing for the method of preparation of said voting machines for elections; providing for the method of use of said voting machines and the duties of judges and clerks of election in connection therewith; providing for assistance to voters in operating said voting machines and regulating the time during which a voter may occupy a voting machine booth; providing for the preparation and return of statements of votes cast; providing for the sealing of voting machines, after the votes have been tabulated, for a certain period of time; providing for the filing of statements of votes cast in the office of the Board of Supervisors of Elections, to be used as evidence in any contested election; providing for use of paper ballots where the use of voting machines may become impracticable; providing certain penalties for persons convicted of certain offenses in connection with voting machines; providing for the repeal of laws conflicting herewith; and declaring this act to be an emergency law.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Chapter 532 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, Session of 1935, codified as Sections 224B, 224C and 224D of Article 33 of the Annotated Code, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows: