

peated violations of any of the provisions of this sub-title or the rules and regulations made thereunder.

150. Any State, county, city or town police officer, or any peace officer of the State, shall have the power to stop any vehicle to determine whether the provisions of this sub-title are being complied with and to hold any vehicle transporting poultry, and the operator or operators thereof, to determine the ownership of said poultry.

151. For the purposes of this sub-title, "person" shall mean any individual, firm or corporation; "retailer" shall mean a person with an established place of business selling dressed poultry for household consumption, which poultry was purchased dressed, and "poultry" shall mean all domestic fowl, including pigeons, turkeys and game birds.

152. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this sub-title and/or the lawful rules and regulations made thereunder, or who buys poultry except from a licensee under this sub-title or from a producer, shall, for the first offense, be fined not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and for any subsequent offense not more than Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00), and/or imprisonment, for not more than thirty (30) days.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1937.

Approved May 18, 1937.

---

CHAPTER 348.

AN ACT to add three new sections to Article 32A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1935 Supplement), title "Department of Law", sub-title "Blue Sky Law", to be known as Sections 10A, 10B and 10C, to follow immediately after Section 10 of said Article, and to repeal and re-enact with amendments Sections 12 and 14 of said Article and sub-title, to provide further for preventing fraud in connection with securities offered for sale within the State of Maryland.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That three new sections be and they are hereby added to Article 32A of the Annotated Code of Maryland