

483 and 485 of Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Crimes and Punishments", sub-title "Sabbath Breaking", are hereby repealed with respect to the exhibition authorized by Sections 507A and 507B as enacted by Section 1 hereof to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That Sections 1 and 2 of this Act shall not become effective until they shall have been submitted, for adoption or rejection, to the qualified voters of the Town of Oakland at the City Election to be held on Monday, March 8, 1937. There shall be printed on the ballots to be used at said election the title of this Act and underneath said title on separate lines, a square box to the right of and opposite the words "For Motion Pictures on Sunday", and a corresponding square or box to the right of and opposite the words "Against Motion Pictures on Sunday", so that the voters shall be able to designate by a cross mark in the proper square or box his or her decision for or against said question. If a majority of the votes cast on said question shall be "For Motion Pictures on Sunday", then Sections 1 and 2 of this Act shall become effective on March 15, 1937, unless such election be contested, in which event they shall take effect one week after the final determination of such contest, but if a majority of the votes cast thereon shall be "Against Motion Pictures on Sunday", then this Act shall be null and void and of no effect whatsoever.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved February 24, 1937.
