

5. If in the opinion of the Commissioner of Loans the bond shall at any time appear to be insecure or exhausted, or otherwise doubtful, an additional bond in the sum of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) satisfactory to the Commissioner of Loans shall be filed and upon failure of the obligor to file such additional bond, the license shall be revoked by the Commissioner of Loans.

6. The Commissioner of Loans may, upon notice to the licensee and reasonable opportunity to be heard, revoke such license if the licensee has violated any provision of this Article; and in case the licensee shall be convicted by a Court a second time of a violation of section fourteen (14) of this Article, the Commissioner of Loans shall revoke such license; provided that the second offense shall have occurred after a prior conviction, in which case another license shall not be issued to such licensee.

8. No person, co-partnership, or corporation so licensed shall make any loan or transact any business provided for by this Article, under any other name, or at any other place of business, than that named in the license. Not more than one place of business shall be maintained under the same license, but the Commissioner of Loans may issue more than one license to the same licensee upon the payment of an additional license fee and the filing of an additional bond for each license.

9. Whenever the licensee shall change his place of business, he shall at once give written notice thereof to the Commissioner of Loans, who shall attach to the license his consent in writing to such change.

10. The Commissioner of Loans, for the purpose of discovering violations of this Article, may either personally or by any person designated by him, at any time and as often as he may desire, investigate the loans and business of every licensee and of every person, co-partnership, and corporation by whom or for which any such loan shall be made, whether such person, co-partnership, or corporation shall act, or claim to act as principal, agent, or broker, or under, or without the authority of this Article; and for that purpose he shall have free access to the books, papers, records, safes and vaults of all such persons, co-partnerships and corporations; he shall also have authority to examine, under oath, all persons whomsoever, whose testimony he may require, relative to such loans or business.

11. The licensee shall keep such books and records as in the opinion of the Commissioner of Loans will enable the
