

title "Prince George's County", sub-title "Bowie", be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

89. All adult persons who have resided within the said town for six months next preceding the day of election, or who shall be assessed with three hundred dollars of real or personal property within said town, and who are qualified to vote for delegates to the General Assembly of Maryland, shall elect on the first Monday in June, 1917, and annually thereafter on the first Monday in June, three persons to act as Commissioners of said Town, all of whom shall be residents of said town and shall have been qualified to vote in a town election in said town for at least one year next preceding their election.

90. The Commissioners of said Town shall annually on or before the first Monday in May appoint three persons from among the voters thereof to act as judges of election. And the said judges of election shall give at least ten days's notice, by posting not less than five written or printed notices in conspicuous places in said town and by a notice published in two issues of a newspaper published in the town, if there be a newspaper so published, of the time and place at which said election shall be held; and the said judges of election before opening the polls, shall take the constitutional oath of office before any person authorized by law to administer oaths; and the said judges shall keep the polls open from three o'clock P. M., until seven o'clock P. M., and shall record the names of the voters, and after the closing of the polls, shall count the ballots and announce the result, and make and sign a certificate thereof to be filed among the records of said corporation. And in case of any tie vote being cast, so that no three men shall receive the highest number of votes cast, the said judges of election shall call another election in not more than fifteen days, and shall give notice as above provided, at which election there shall be elected such number of commissioners, as with those receiving a majority at the regular election, will fill the board of three commissioners.

91. If any vacancy shall occur by the death, resignation, removal, or refusal to act of any commissioner of said town, the remaining commissioner shall elect a proper person to fill said vacancy; and all cases of contested election of said commissioners shall be decided by the judges of the Circuit Court of Prince George's County in the manner provided by the General Election Laws; and pending any contest, actually filed, and until the Court shall decide who is legally elected, the commissioner or commissioners whose election is contested, if he is holding the office by virtue of a previous election, shall
