234C. Any person, or any agent or employee thereof, who sells a second-hand watch shall deliver to the vendee a written invoice setting forth the name and address of the vendor, the name and address of the vendee, the date of the sale, the name of the watch or its maker, and the serial numbers (if any) or other distinguishing numbers or identification marks on its case and movement. In the event the serial numbers, or other distinguishing numbers or identification marks have been erased, defaced, removed, altered or covered, this shall be set forth in the invoice. A duplicate of the aforesaid invoice shall be kept on file by the vendor of such second-hand watch for at least one year from the date of the sale thereof and shall be open to inspection during all business hours by the State's Attorney or his representative of the county or Baltimore City in which the vendor is engaged in business.

234D. Any person advertising in any manner second-hand watches for sale shall state clearly in such advertising that the watches so advertised are second-hand watches.

234E. Any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation or any member, officer, agent or employee thereof, who shall violate any provision of this sub-title, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1937.

Approved May 18, 1937.
