CHAPTER 403.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 9 of Article 89B of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1935 Supplement), title "State Roads", authorizing the members of the State Roads Commission and certain of its employees to enforce certain provisions of the Motor Vehicle Laws and particularly the provisions relating to the size and weight of motor vehicles.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 9 of Article 89B of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1935 Supplement), title "State Roads", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

9. Any person who shall ride, drive or walk upon any new roadbed, or new repairs of any roadbed, constructed or being constructed by or under the supervision of the State Roads Commission of Maryland before the same is opened for traffic, and any person who shall remove any light or guard set up for the purpose of closing said road or any part thereof to traffic, and any person who shall otherwise maliciously injure or damage in any manner any highway built under the provisions of Article 91 of the Code aforesaid, either in the course of its construction or thereafter, or who shall otherwise maliciously injure or damage any work, material or structure used in connection therewith, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or be imprisoned not more than three months, or in the discretion of the Court, may be both fined and imprisoned as aforesaid, provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall affect any special method or manner of injury or damage, the prohibition or punishment for which is already provided for by law. The members of the State Roads Commission, and such of its employees and servants as are designated by it, shall have authority to enforce all laws of this State relating to State Highways and the
