

sioner, and may be retired at any time if permanently incapacitated on account of injuries received in the performance of duty. It shall be mandatory upon the Mayor, Counselor and Aldermen to appropriate and levy each year a sufficient sum to pay the pensions herein provided for to all members of the Police Department retired under the provisions of this section. There shall be no provisions in the law under which a member of the Police Department may apply for retirement or be retired at a certain age limit.

21E. Any member of the paid Fire Department of the City of Annapolis may be retired from his department after twenty years of active service, on a retirement salary of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month, if permanently incapacitated for active duty, or, at any time, if permanently incapacitated on account of injuries received in the performance of duty, said eligibility for retirement in either case to be determined by the Mayor, Counselor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis, under regulation which said municipal corporation is hereby authorized to pass. It shall be mandatory upon the Mayor, Counselor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis to appropriate and levy each year a sufficient sum to pay the pensions herein provided for to all members of the paid Fire Department retired under the provisions of this section. There shall be no provision in the law under which a member of the paid Fire Department may apply for retirement or be retired at a certain age limit.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1, 1937.

Approved May 18, 1937.

CHAPTER 434.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 31 of Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1935 Supplement), title "Crimes and Punishments", sub-title "Bribery", said amendment limiting the immunity provisions of said statute to witnesses called in behalf of the State and exempting said witnesses from prosecution, as well as from trial and punishment.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 31 of Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1935 Supplement), title "Crimes and Punishments", sub-title "Bribery", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows: