

George's County", sub-title "Justices of the Peace", said new section to be known as Section 571A, to follow immediately after Section 571 of said Article, and to provide for the keeping of records of arrested persons brought before Justices of the Peace in Prince George's County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and the same is hereby added to Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Prince George's County", sub-title "Justices of the Peace", said new section to be known as Section 571A, to follow immediately after Section 571 of said Article, and to read as follows:

571A. Whenever any person has been arrested and is brought before any Justice of the Peace of Prince George's County for commitment, the said Justice of the Peace shall, immediately after making a disposition of the charge on which the person arrested is brought before him, make a record in quadruplicate, the original of which he shall retain with the records of his office to be delivered to the County Commissioners of Prince George's County on termination of his office, a duplicate of which he shall deliver to the arresting officer immediately, the triplicate of which he shall send to the Superintendent of the Prince George's County Police Force within twenty-four hours, at the office where the arresting officer is stationed, and the quadruplicate of which he shall send to the Sheriff of Prince George's County within twenty-four hours, and said record, and the duplicate, triplicate, and quadruplicate thereof shall contain, among other things, the name of the person arrested, the charges brought against him or her, the name of the arresting officer, and where the charge is made by a person other than the arresting officer, then the name of such person by whom the charge is made, the name of the Justice of the Peace before whom the arrested person was taken, and the immediate disposition of the arrested person, whether released on bail-bond or collateral or held in jail, and if released on bail-bond, the name of the bondsman and the amount of the bond, and if released on collateral, the amount of collateral deposited, and the essential facts in each case. If any person, committed by Justices of the Peace of Prince George's County is released by order of a different Justice of the Peace of Prince George's County, the Justice of the Peace so releasing the arrested person shall make the same record and transmit the copies thereof to the persons above named, to whom copies of the original commitment are to be sent, and shall, in addition to the information required for the record provided for herein, show the name of the Justice of