

livered; and, where such application is for feeding garbage or for a hog pen,

- (3) The location of the proposed hog pen;
- (4) The approximate number of swine to be kept;
- (5) The method and manner by which said hogs shall be fed.

Each such application shall be signed by the applicant or applicants and be accompanied by a fee of one dollar ($1.00).

Upon receipt of any such application, the Board of County Commissioners of Prince George's County shall immediately issue a license to such applicant for the transportation of or for feeding such garbage or for the establishment and maintenance of a hog pen where garbage is fed, as the case may be, and shall enter an order in its record of proceedings before the Board of County Commissioners to that effect. However, such license as may be granted in accordance herewith, shall be subject to revocation, suspension, or cancellation by the County Commissioners at any time after its issuance where complaint is made by some person that the transportation of or feeding of such garbage or the establishment and maintenance of such hog pen at the location described in said application, as the case may be, is detrimental to the health, safety, or welfare of the inhabitants of Prince George's County. Upon receipt of a complaint by the County Commissioners, they shall refer the said complaint to the County Health Officer or County Veterinarian, who shall make an investigation of the facts, and where the complaint is as to a hog pen, then the premises in question, and report, in writing, to the County Commissioners whether or not the transportation or feeding of such garbage or the establishment and maintenance of the hog pen is likely to be detrimental to the public health, safety, or welfare of the inhabitants of Prince George's County. When the said County Commissioners shall have heard the person complaining against said issuance of said license and shall have provided the applicant or licensee an opportunity to be heard and shall have determined that the license theretofore issued should be cancelled, rescinded, suspended, or revoked, in that event, such license as may have been issued shall be rescinded, cancelled, revoked, or suspended and the Board of County Commissioners shall make an order thereon to that effect and record the same in its record of its proceedings and shall order the removal of said hog pen, and any person who shall fail to remove such hog pen, after an order therefor for such removal, shall be guilty of a violation of this Act as is hereinafter provided.

Any license issued under the provisions of this Act, shall be for a period of one year, and must be renewed within one year of the date of issuance; and any renewal license shall
