

been passed upon by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved May 18, 1937.

CHAPTER 471.

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Prince George's County", sub-title "Justices of the Peace", said new section to be known as Section 571B to follow immediately after Section 571A of said Article and to provide that persons arrested for violation of any law in Prince George's County shall be taken to the Justice of the Peace available nearest to the place of arrest for commitment or sentence and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and the same is hereby added to Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Prince George's County", sub-title "Justices of the Peace", said new section to be known as 571B to follow immediately after Section 571A of said Article and to read as follows:

571B. In case any person shall be taken into custody in Prince George's County because of a violation of any provisions of law, whether public general or public local, or because of the violation of any ordinances or regulations of the County Commissioners of Prince George's County or any sub-divisional governmental body of the State or of Prince George's County authorized to enact ordinances or regulations with respect to Prince George's County, or to parts thereof, such arrested person shall forthwith be taken before the Justice of the Peace available nearest to the place of arrest with respect to the charge made against him for which such arrest was made and such Justice of the Peace shall make such disposition of such arrested person as may be authorized by law, either by commitment pending a hearing of the charge before the Police Justice of Prince George's County or the Circuit Court of Prince George's County or such other disposition as may be appropriate, with authority in said Justice of the Peace to set the amount of bail-bond or collateral required for the release of such arrested person pending final disposition of such charge as may be made against him. The