

Justice of the Peace available nearest to the place of arrest where used herein shall be construed to mean such Justice of the Peace as resides nearest the place of arrest and who is at home or at an office in the same vicinity, but where the arresting person knows that the Justice of the Peace nearest the place of arrest is not at home or at an office in the same vicinity or is by reason of any circumstance unable to hear the charge preferred against the arrested person, then the arresting person shall take the arrested person to the Justice of the Peace next available and next nearest the place of arrest. In the event any person shall take into custody or arrest any person charged with violation of any law, regulation or ordinance as above enumerated and such arresting person shall fail to take such arrested person before a Justice of the Peace available nearest to the place of arrest as herein provided, such person making the arrest shall be guilty of a violation of this section and shall be subject to a fine of not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) or more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), and each violation of the provisions hereof shall constitute a separate offense, and if any of such arresting persons violating this section shall be a member of the Prince George's County Police Force he shall, in addition to the penalty directed herein, be subject to suspension from duty for not more than ten (10) days without pay.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed upon a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved May 28, 1937.
