

Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Prince George's County", sub-title "Licenses", be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

700. For licenses issued to hawkers and peddlers in Prince George's County, the fee shall be Fifty Dollars ($50.00).

701. No person, firm or corporation, by its officers, agents or employees, shall sell, barter or trade or offer or expose for sale, barter or trade in or upon any street or highway of Prince George's County, or go from house to house, either on foot, or with a horse or other beast of burden, or with a wagon, or motor vehicle, or any other conveyance whatsoever, upon the streets or highways of Prince George's County selling, bartering or trading or offering to sell, barter or trade, or shall sell, barter or trade or offer to sell, barter or trade at or from any roadside stand or roadside market upon any street or highway of Prince George's County, any produce, products or merchandise whatsoever, except of his, her or its own production or manufacture, without having previously obtained a license from the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Prince George's County for such purpose as provided in Section 700 of this Article, which said license shall particularly describe the licensee thereof and the purpose for which it was issued and which shall expire one year from the date of issuance.

Whenever any license shall have been issued for the use by the licensee of any vehicle, whether horse-drawn, motor-driven or otherwise propelled, such licensee shall display on such vehicle two metal plates, to be issued by the Clerk of the Circuit Court as aforesaid with such license, which plates shall show thereon a number corresponding to the number of the license issued to such licensee and the following inscription: "Prince George's County Huckster License".

The holder of any license for any roadside stand or roadside market licensed under this section shall display the license issued therefor in a prominent place within said stand or market, where it will be clearly visible to customers of said licensee; provided, however, that this Section shall not apply to sellers of bread, cakes or crackers; and provided further, that nothing in this section shall apply to hawkers or peddlers of oysters and fish in their unpreserved and natural condition, and fresh meat perishable in their nature that are sold in their natural condition in this State.

Any person who shall violate the provisions of this section or of any part thereof shall upon conviction be subject to a fine of not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) and not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or be sentenced to the County
