

city, and any deficiency, if any, shall be included in the next succeeding levy and forthwith paid into the State Treasury.

611-K. Should any county or the City of Baltimore fail to levy a tax in said county or city for said amount when due said State, and shall fail at the time of levying other county or city taxes thereafter, to levy the tax aforesaid, to an amount sufficient to pay the indebtedness subsequently incurred, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to bring in the name of the State an action against any said county, in the Circuit Court for said county, or against the City of Baltimore, in the Superior Court of Baltimore City, so failing aforesaid, to enforce the levying of said tax, for the recovery of the amount due the State, as aforesaid. Upon failure of any county or the City of Baltimore to levy such tax as aforesaid, to an amount sufficient to pay the amount then due the State, it shall be the duty of the State Comptroller to charge such delinquent county or said city with a penalty of interest at one per cent. per month upon the amount of indebtedness for each month until payment thereof and penalty thereon be paid. It shall be the duty of the County Treasurer and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, upon the collection of the taxes herein required to be levied, to pay unto the State Treasurer the amount due and owing from said county or city at the time and in the manner required for the payment of State taxes collected, and the State Treasurer and the State Comptroller shall upon the first day of July and January, in each year, transfer the full amount received from the counties and the City of Baltimore, under the provisions of this Article, to the account of the Cheltenham School for Boys. Taxes levied and collected in any county or the City of Baltimore for the purpose named in this Article, shall be used to defray the expenses of the colored male minors committed to the Cheltenham School for Boys, or paroled, and under the control of said school and shall not be diverted to any other purpose, nor be transferred to any other fund by the State, city or county authorities. Whenever the Board of Managers of the Cheltenham School for Boys holds a colored male minor as from one county or the City of Baltimore, or the County Commissioners of such county or the Mayor and City Council of the City of Baltimore makes claim that such colored male minor is not a proper charge against the said county or the City of Baltimore, and such County Commissioners or the Mayor and City Council of the City of Baltimore, shall notify the State Comptroller that it is claimed that such colored male minor is not a proper charge against their county or the City of Baltimore, as the case may be, and shall claim that the said colored male minor is a proper charge against some other county or the City
