

building. With regard to the removal of the paintings, it will be conducted by most experienced and competent parties.

The undersigned may not at the late day, at which the appropriation was made, and with the means it affords, be able to do on this occasion all they could desire—but, should your Honorable Body grant the request now made, there will be a collection that will compensate for many unavoidable short comings.

Most respectfully,

JNO. H. B. LATROBE,
SAM M. SHOEMAKER,
Commissioners.
