Said Resolution was then sent to the Senate.

Mr. Koons submitted the following order :

WHEREAS, The proper and judicious education of the people by a system of public school instruction is one of the principal safeguards of our liberties.; therefore,

Resolved, That any system of public school instruction which may be devised, should be by the people of the people, and for the people, and that all the people of the State should be allowed to participate as well in its control as in its advantages and emoluments.

Which was rejected.

On motion of Mr. Waters, of Dorchester,

Ordered, That the Committee on Claims be instructed to insure the paintings directed to be sent to the Centennial Exposition against loss from fire or otherwise.

On motion of Mr. Briscoe,

Ordered, That Mr. Ward have leave of absence for a few days, to attend the funeral of his ward.

On motion of Mr. Neal,

Leave was granted to the Queen Anne's and Talbot delegations, to introduce a bill to regulate the measurement of oysters in Queen Anne's and Talbot counties.
