

Foreseeing, therefore, that great injustice and wrong may be inflicted by the proposed measure, I beg, most respectfully, to return the bill, and to express the hope that it may not become one of the laws of this State.

JOHN LEE CARROLL.

Which was read.

The bill named therein was returned with the message.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message:

BY THE SENATE,
March 24, 1876.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message informing the Senate that your Honorable Body non-concurred in the Senate amendment to House Bill No. 127, and requesting the Senate to recede therefrom. We have to inform you that the Senate adheres to its amendment, and request the appointment of a Committee of Conference to adjust the differences, and have appointed on the part of the Senate, as managers, Messrs. Walsh, Lloyd and Gorman.

By order,
AUGUSTUS GASSAWAY,
Secretary.

Which was read.

Also, returned the bill named therein.

Mr. Scott submitted the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
March 25, 1876.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We have received your message declining to recede from the amendment proposed to House bill No. 127, and asking for a Committee of Conference on the same, and hereby concur therein, and have appointed as members on the part of the House, Messrs. Scott, Stewart and Sprigg.

By order,
MILTON Y. KIDD,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to and sent to the Senate.
